WASHINGTON — (AP) — The House Public Works committee failed to reach a vote today on legislation to authorize the St. Lawrence seaway and power project. The group scheduled another closed session tomorrow.

Chairman Buckley (D-NY) said the committee, in a two-hour session, discussed only two of eight seaway bills pending before it.

Buckley declined to predict whether the committee would reach a vote tomorrow.

Both supporters and opponents of the big waterway—disputed for generations—were confident their side would prevail.

Most neutral observers were inclined to believe the bill will be rejected.

The committee, in addition to holding extensive hearings early this spring, inspected the seaway site last month on a tour which extended from Duluth, Minn., to Montreal.

Under several virtually identical bills before the committee the legislation, in the main, calls for:

Deepening the St. Lawrence river to a mean depth of 27 feet to permit navigation by ocean-going ships, and;

Construction of a 2,200,000 horsepower hydroelectric generating plant in the international rapids section of the river—near Massena, N. Y., for the annual production of about 13,000,000 kilowatt hours of energy.

Cost $18 Million

The power yield would be shared equally along with construction costs by the United States and Canada.

Engineers estimate the combined project would cost $818,000,000. The bulk of the money—about $560,000,000—would be for the waterway.

Supporters of the project include Secretary of Defense Marshall, Secretary of State Acheson, Defense Mobilizer Wilson, Secretary of the Army Pace, Secretary of the Interior Chapman and army engineers.

The project is mainly opposed by Atlantic and Gulf Coast port cities, eastern railroads and some private utility interests.

Lone Bank Bandit Hunted By Nearly 100 At Kalkaska

KALKASKA, Mich. — (AP) — Nearly 100 state troopers closed in on a heavily wooded area near this northern Michigan community today in an attempt to trap a bank bandit. The FBI also joined in the search.

The bandit abandoned his getaway car and fled into a state forest after holding up the Kalkaska State Bank at 3 p. m., yesterday. He escaped with loot of $126 in small currency and change.

Fired As Porter

At Lansing, state police issued a pickup order for Wayne Waters, 37, alias Raymond J. L. Turcotte, a native of Canada, wanted for questioning in the holdup. Police said he recently had been fired as a porter in the bar of a Grand Rapids hotel where he was known as "Muddy" Waters.

Police said the fugitive's woman friend in Cadillac told them that he had borrowed her car yesterday. She was questioned after a 1946 Pontiac abandoned by the bandit was traced to her. Police said a meal ticket issued to a "Wayne Waters" was found in the car.

The bandit was described as about 35 years old. He was masked and wore blue jeans with dress shoes.

The man walked into the bank shortly before closing time. He pointed a gun at Genevieve Montgomery, who was at the teller's window. Motioning to a pile of $1 bills, he said:

"I'll take those."

Then he hesitated, and demanded some $5 and $10 bills. He spoke in a loud voice.

Loses His Nerve

L. S. Armstrong, a cashier, walked towards the teller's cage to see what was going on. This seemed to shake the bandit's nerve.

The bandit backed away from the teller's window. He forced Ira Bardwell, a county road commission clerk, to hold open the door as he left the bank. Bardwell said he was not hurt.

Cherry Capital Holds Festival

Government Buys Big Portion Of Crop

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. — (AP) — Growers had special cause for celebration today as the 26th annual National Cherry festival got underway in this cherry capital of the nation.

The federal government, already pledged to purchase 25 percent of the U. S. 1951 crop, will buy an additional 450,000 cases for the school lunch program.

A. J. Rogers, president of Cherry Growers, Inc., said he was authorized by Sen. Moody (D-Mich.) to announce the further government price support program.

Unlike the original set-aside order for a quarter of the crop for military consumption, the government's school lunch buying of cherries will be on a bidding basis, Rogers said. The department of agriculture will do the buying.

Sen. Moody and Gov. Williams are guests of honor Friday at the festival which is expected to bring 100,000 guests into the area.

Queen Mary Lonn Trapp, 19-year-old Michigan State College sophomore from Beulah, receives her crown tonight at a coronation pageant at Thrifty field.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United Nations command announced tonight that 20 Allied news representatives will accompany U. N. negotiators to Kaesong tomorrow, third day of Korean armistice talks.

An official communique said the newsmen will be allowed within the area of the negotiations but not in the conference room.

Allied correspondents were not allowed to attend the first two days of talks because of objections by Red negotiators.

Photographers On Job

Five Allied cameramen went to the conference city today. Accredited to the U. S. Army and United Nations, they were permitted to make the trip as official army photographers. The Chinese had agreed that up to five "army photographers" could be in Kaesong.

One of the cameramen is Jim Pringle of the Associated Press. The others are James Healy, Acme news photos; Joe Scherschel, Life magazine; Gene Zenior, Warner-Pathe news reels, and Ronnie Noble, British Broadcasting Corp. television.

Chinese Red soldiers halted the photographers at an outpost along the way for an hour. The Reds turned down repeated offers of American cigarettes and candy.

When the Allied group arrived at U. N. house in Kaesong, North Korean soldiers and a North Korean girl uniformed in blue distributed drinks, Russian candy bars and Chinese cigarettes. The Americans readily accepted.

The five Allied cameramen, with an equal number of Red photographers in uniform, were allowed to move freely in the compound of the conference house and take whatever pictures they wanted. But they were not permitted to enter the conference room.

The Red negotiators agreed to the presence of Allied correspondents in Kaesong only after several requests by American delegates.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Harry Darby, Kansas Republican national committee chairman, predicted today Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will be available for the 1952 GOP presidential nomination.

Darby, former senator who supported Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York when the latter won the 1948 nomination, is looked upon by some as the unofficial manager of an unofficial campaign to get next year's nomination for Eisenhower.

Eisenhower declined to seek either the Republican or Democratic nomination three years ago and has said he was "not going to let any sort of talk by others make me a candidate."

Whether Eisenhower's name will be entered in some of the early primaries next year apparently remains to be decided by events—or perhaps by accident, if local enthusiasts get out of hand.

Darby and others apparently expect help from Senator Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.) in efforts to get the Maine delegation, although her colleague, Senator Brewster (R-Me.) is a supporter of Senator Taft (R-Ohio).

Taft, all but an avowed candidate, is credited with delegate strength in the south. But there the Eisenhower backers believe the general's name will help them get some delegate votes.

U. S. Jets Down MIGs In Korea

No Letup In Bitter Aerial Battles

HEADQUARTERS, FIFTH AIR FORCE, Korea — (AP) — U. S. Sabre jets today shot down three Communist MIG-15 jets and damaged another in a spectacular 20 minute air battle over northwestern Korea.

Thirty-four allied planes tangled with an estimated 30 MIGs in dramatic dogfights south of Sinuiju.

The aerial battle started when the Sabre jets went to the Yalu river border area to fly top cover for 21 F-80 Shooting Star jets which attacked an ammunition factory south of the river.

Capt. Milton Nelson of Tarrant, Ala., sent a MIG spinning down in flames and brought his score of the Russian-made planes destroyed to four, tops for allied pilots now in Korea.

The ground war in Korea has quieted considerably with the beginning of armistice talks, but there has been no letup in the bitter war in the air.

The U. S. Eighth Army reported patrol contact and artillery fire from the Munsan area near the United Nations "peace camp," base for allied cease-fire negotiations.

Marines To Use 13,000 Draftees

Army Increases Its August Quota

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Marine Corps has joined the Army in calling for drafting in the next two months, but both the Air Force and the Navy will continue to depend solely upon volunteers—at least through the summer.

The Marines yesterday asked for 7,000 draftees in August and 6,000 in September because a slump in volunteering and the release of some reserves combined to hold the corps below its 204,000-man goal.

A shortage of volunteers also caused the Army to raise its August draft sights from 22,000 to 28,000 and to call for the same number in September. The August call will raise to 593,000 the number of Army draftees since the draft was resumed last September.

Although the Air Force felt considerably short of its June 30 goal of 850,000 men, it gained some encouragement from its June recruiting performance. The month produced 25,000 volunteers, some 7,000 short of expectations. The Air Force got only 11,000 in May.

A Navy spokesman said volunteering in June was somewhat better than in May, when only 13,809 new men signed up. The Navy's volunteering peak, since Korea, was the January figure of 38,515.

Rep. Potter Pushes Combat Pay Raise For Boys In Korea

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Michigan's Rep. Charles Potter and a Democratic colleague now are reporting to a petition in an attempt to force action on combat pay for soldiers and Marines in Korea.

Republican Potter and Democrat Olin Teague of Texas began circulating a petition yesterday.

They want to force a House vote on a bill for $100 monthly extra pay to officers and $50 to enlisted men while in actual combat.

They need 218 signatures, a bare majority of the House membership, in order to force the bill out of committee.

Both Potter and Teague are purple heart veterans of World War Two.

Girl Saved, 3 Drown In Wild Lake Huron

PORT HURON — (AP) — The sudden gray waters of Lake Huron today appeared to have claimed the lives of three of four members of a small boat fishing party near Lexington.

But a widespread air and sea search that lasted all night, illuminated by flares and car lights along the shore, continued.

Two men, Clarence Smith, 40, of Detroit, and Aubert Kraas, 64, a lay brother at the Catholic St. Joseph's boys school, Buffalo, N. Y., were still missing.

The body of Mrs. Muriel Koerber, 35, of Detroit, Smith's sister-in-law, washed ashore during the night. The fourth member of the party, Mrs. Gretchen Davis, 24 of Detroit, was rescued heroically shortly after the accident.

The only member of the party who could not swim, she clung to the one life preserver in the 14-foot flat bottomed rowboat the group had rented.

A sudden high wind, tossing up high waves, capsized the rowboat about 6 p. m. Tuesday.

A hero of Mrs. Davis' rescue was Harold Bopp, 38, son-in-law of Leo Putman, operator of a trailer park at Lexington who helped to organize the search.

When Mrs. Davis' was sighted about 400 feet out in the lake, Bopp leaped fully clothed into the water and swam to her side. He then swam with her to shore.

Afterwards, Putman described Mrs. Davis as "the bravest girl you'd ever see."

He said that despite being unable to swim she was calm. She suffered shock and was given medical treatment.

Eisenhower Available To Head GOP Ticket In 1952, Says Kansan

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Harry Darby, Kansas Republican national committee chairman, predicted today Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will be available for the 1952 GOP presidential nomination.

Darby, former senator who supported Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York when the latter won the 1948 nomination, is looked upon by some as the unofficial manager of an unofficial campaign to get next year's nomination for Eisenhower.

Eisenhower declined to seek either the Republican or Democratic nomination three years ago and has said he was "not going to let any sort of talk by others make me a candidate."

Whether Eisenhower's name will be entered in some of the early primaries next year apparently remains to be decided by events—or perhaps by accident, if local enthusiasts get out of hand.

Darby and others apparently expect help from Senator Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.) in efforts to get the Maine delegation, although her colleague, Senator Brewster (R-Me.) is a supporter of Senator Taft (R-Ohio).

Taft, all but an avowed candidate, is credited with delegate strength in the south. But there the Eisenhower backers believe the general's name will help them get some delegate votes.

School Finance Reports Heard

Fiscal Year Closes With $133 Deficit

After payment of salaries to teachers who are on 12-month pay basis the Escanaba city school district closed its fiscal year with a deficit of $133.20, it was reported to the board of education last night by Supt. John A. Lemmer.

The school district's fiscal year ended June 30.

During the past fiscal year receipts totaled $622,030.32 which with a $92,213.81 balance from the previous year brought the total revenue to $714,244.13.

Salary Adjustments

The revenue came largely from state aid and from local taxes. Local taxes totaled approximately $87,679.51; while state aid (including primary money, state aid and sales tax) totaled $403,770.

The state aid receipts were above estimates, and from this the board of education in the past year made salary adjustments to the teachers to meet cost of living increases.

Disbursements during the past year totaled $678,093.81. This figure, plus the $36,283.52 due teachers who elect to receive their salaries on a 12-month payment basis, total $714,377.33 or expenditures of $133.20 above receipts for the year.

Junior High Bonds

In its debt service account it was shown that a total of $23,892.50 in principal and interest had been paid toward the retirement of the school district's bonded indebtedness in the construction of the Escanaba Junior high school.

The total remaining to be paid is $171,000 and the indebtedness will be retired by 1958.

Reports were also presented on adult education, scholarship funds and textbook rentals.

The board also received a report showing that a total of $693,748.07 has been received by the board of education under the will of the late Mrs. Catherine Bonifas. The balance in this fund is $656,588.23, with all but about $3,000 invested in U. S. treasury bonds and bills at interest rates of 2 1/2 per cent. The difference has been expended by the board in the purchase of building sites and for architect's fees.

Teacher Gets Contract

Other business before the board included the following:

Approval of a 1951-52 teaching contract for August N. Stucken-schneider of Akron, Mich., who will teach mathematics and be assistant coach at Escanaba Senior High school. He is a graduate of University of Michigan and has taught for the past two years at Akron.

Supt. Lemmer and Assistant Supt. George Ruwittch were authorized to visit schools at Dearborn and observe their building program.

Received from the Escanaba Woman's Club a check for $150 for the scholarship sponsored by the club.

Lakes Vessels Move 13,166,130 Tons

CLEVELAND — (P) — Great Lakes vessels moved 13,166,130 gross tons of iron ore in June, to set a record for the month.

This was reported today by the Lake Carriers' Association, which said the best previous June was in 1942. A year ago the June shipments were 11,737,923 gross tons.

Ore volume for the season to July 1 reached 32,041,699 gross tons compared with the 21,583,175 a year ago, when the season was late in starting, and 33,164,315 two years ago, when there was an early start.

Grain movement reached 4,106,747 net tons for the season, only 90,000 tons under the July 1 figure in the best post-war year, 1949.

Coal shipments, at 17,141,752 net tons, were slightly under last year's rate.

Total tonnage for the three bulk cargoes, in net tons, reached 57,135,192 compared with 45,221,935 a year ago and 59,327,046 two years ago.

Industry Gives Views On State

Michigan Dislikes And Likes Listed

ANN ARBOR—Industry comes to Michigan and stays, declines to come, or moves away, for definite and determinable reasons.

These reasons are set down in a study by the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan and a task force of the Michigan Economic Development Commission for which the survey was made.

Facts and conclusions were compiled from personal interviews with a representative sample of Michigan manufacturers. Of 200 industrialists, interviewed last year, 12 said they have been considering moving all or part of their plant to another state. A dozen more were considering expansion of their plants outside Michigan.

The survey concludes that this indicates no serious threat and says that the loss, if it should occur, would be more than compensated by construction of new plants and the movement of industry into Michigan.

However, many industrialists who do not consider moving still have many complaints and, says the report, "one major cause for not planning to move a plant is a general state of inertia rather than the advantages of plant location in Michigan over alternative locations."

Advantages of a Michigan location most frequently mentioned by manufacturers are:

Nearness to markets; particularly to the automotive plants,

Much more dissatisfaction was found in Detroit than in outstate areas.

Many Farmers Use Sub-Marginal Lands For Growing Of Trees

FARMERS all over the Middle West are playing a major role in the far-reaching program to restore the forests of the nation. They are finding that sub-marginal lands unsuited for growing potatoes, grains and other agricultural crops can be devoted profitably to the raising of trees.

Others are getting into the act. Utilization of non-agricultural lands for tree growing is getting the attention of railroads lumbering and paper companies, public utilities, chambers of commerce, service clubs and municipalities. Augmenting the long-established reforestation programs of the U. S. Forest Service and state conservation departments, they are putting America well on its way to becoming green with growing forests where once was only fire-scarred, idle wasteland.

Farmers are taking advice from experienced foresters in the management of their woodlots and back forty's. They are doing selective cutting and producing a certain amount of Christmas trees, pulpwood and other forest products each year. Clear-cutting is out, a relic of the past exploitation of the forests without regard to future timber supply.

The Chicago and North Western railway, whose lines extend through Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula, is performing much valuable yeoman service among the farmers in this reforestation program. The railroad owns mechanical tree planters, which it loans to farmers.

The C. & N. W. railway also has made the tree planting machines available to the City of Escanaba for its municipal forest on the ore dock project site.

Restoration of America's wastelands is an encouraging sign. Years ago, selfish promoters mulcted unsuspecting people into buying lands that were unsuitable for farming. Through land planning and zoning programs, there is now quite general

Pendill's Creek Site Acquired For Hatchery

THE U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service apparently is going ahead with its long-delayed plan to establish a fish hatchery in the Upper Peninsula.

Announcement has been made that property on Pendill's creek in Chippewa county has been acquired by the federal government for the propagation of lake trout and whitefish. When actual construction work will be commenced on the project has not been indicated, however.

Several sites in the Upper Peninsula, including the head of Little Bay de Noc, were inspected by officials of the Fish and Wildlife Service. The Pendill's creek location was eventually chosen.

Commercial fishermen will view the acquisition of the fish hatchery site with much satisfaction. Lake trout production in the Great Lakes has seen a marked decline in recent years. Much of the blame for this disappointing situation has been placed upon the sea lamprey, a menace that is also receiving the attention of the Fish and Wildlife Service.

The Pendill's creek hatchery project and the sea lamprey investigations are expected to be helpful to the Great Lakes commercial fishing industry, which furnishes a livelihood for a considerable number of families in the many fishing ports that dot the shores of the lakes.

Carnival Gyp Artists Plying Their Trade

UPPER Peninsula communities are already beginning to have their sad experiences with carnivals, which come for a week's stay, take the people's money and leave a lot of trouble behind them.

Some communities wisely ban carnivals despite the efforts of the show owners to obtain the sponsorship of local organizations. Credit is due also to the organizations who no longer are willing to lend their good names and reputations to the fostering of such enterprises.

The Marinette (Wis.) Eagle-Star, a perennial crusader against carnivals and rackets, recently made the following editorial comment on the subject:

"The goings-on at the carnival in Menominee last week should convince Menominee councilmen that they are long overdue in banning carnivals: It had the usual gyp artists, it had gambling games, and over-charges for food that caught unsuspecting persons. And the gullible who think they can beat a carnival gambling game contributed their share to the success of the carnival.

"It has often been said there is no such thing as a good carnival. Marinette's city council accepted that version several years ago and no member of the council lost his seat because he dared to say 'no' to a veterans' organization that wanted to sponsor a carnival. Menominee's city council is long overdue in getting up the courage."

Parade

People come from miles around to see a colorful parade, with its martial music blaring and its colors bright displayed. And it doesn't matter what the cause of marching in the street, for parades we've always thought a show that simply can't be beat. Line 'em up and get 'em started, give 'em all a noisy hand, and it's glory be, the leader now is striking up the band!

Traffic cops on motorcycles heading down the boulevard, open cars with dignitaries and a snappy color guard. Men with uniforms so spic and span, and some with bayonets, and behind them, stepping high and wide, some pretty majorettes. Rolling drums and shiny bugles, tubas, trumpets, brassy horns, and a float of many flowers which a smiling queen adorns.

Horses prancing to the music with their tasseled heads held high, and the Stars and Stripes Forever as the line goes marching by. Why, there isn't anything on earth that thrills us every one, like the way Old Glory shimmers there against the shining sun. Let 'em keep on coming always with that Flag so well displayed, and we'll always come from miles around to see the big parade!

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON.—It is impossible, of course, to know exactly why Moscow made a peace move at this specific time. But calls at the state department by two embassies may give the answer.

One is the French embassy which has informed Secretary of State Acheson that Chinese troops are already massing on the French Indo-Chinese border and that airfields in South China have been enlarged—obviously for a new attack.

The other is the Yugoslav embassy which has informed the state department that Rumanian troops are maneuvering and that Tito believes there is a 50-50 chance the long-expected attack on Yugoslavia will begin this fall.

It doesn't take even a smart mind-reader to figure out that the Kremlin has an awful lot to gain by prolonged peace talks in Korea. Here are at least three reasons: No. 1—The United Nations is not going to go to the rescue of the French in Indo-China. That struggle has been going on a long time, and there is considerable feeling among some U. N. members that the French bungled things by hanging on to imperialism too long.

No. 2—The U. N. will not relish going to the defense of Yugoslavia. First, it's a Communist nation. Second, it isn't in the North Atlantic Pact. Third, it's in a corner of the world which is hard to defend.

No. 3—Peace talks are going to cause a letdown in the U. S. A. and this is exactly what the Kremlin wants. Inflation in this country can do more for Moscow than a dozen Chinese armies in Korea. Also, any letup of the American mobilization program will be greatly appreciated in Moscow, thank you. Obviously the Kremlin now realizes that the Korean war was a big mistake if for no other reason than that it got American preparedness into high gear.

It will be interesting to see how far the solons in congress fall into Moscow's trap. So far, in regard to inflation, they seem to be falling fast.

LOBBYING EX-CONGRESSMAN

Ex-Congressman Pace of Georgia, former chairman of the agriculture committee, was ordered off the house floor last week—for lobbying on the farm labor bill while it was being debated.

House rules permit former congressmen to visit on the house floor, but Pace was using this privilege to lobby for the National Cotton council, which wants to legalize cheap Mexican labor.

He was so blatant in pulling strings on the house floor and telling his former colleagues what to say in debate that Congressman McCarthy of Minnesota walked up to the presiding officer and whispered a protest. The chair then sent an orderly who quietly ordered Pace off the floor.

NOTE—Incidentally, Congressman Pace, the law requires you to register as a lobbyist.

TAFT GETS COLD FEET

The man who has secretly been blocking the senate elections committee from getting a counsel happens to be Senator Taft.

Taft made a big show of demanding an investigation of the Ohio campaign, but got cold feet when the committee agreed to investigate. So Taft got his friend, Congressman Clarence Brown of Ohio, to block the appointment of Robert Murphy as committee counsel. Murphy needed a special waiver to serve as counsel, because his law firm is engaged in suits involving the government.

After Murphy was blocked in the house on orders from Taft, Taft has now silently okayed the appointment of a counsel to his liking—John Lederle, who worked for the Republicans in 1946.

IRANIAN POLITICS

While Prime Minister Mohammed Mosaddegh is taking over the vital Iranian oil fields, his No. 1 assistant, Dr. Husain Fatimi, is secretly on trial for misappropriating funds.

This is the fourth time Fatimi has been caught by the police, and though condemned by various courts, he continues to be the man who's masterminding the whole Middle East oil crisis.

Doctor Fatimi has so much influence that he's even been able to suppress news of his own trial. Organized thugs raided "Sidayi Vito" on June 23 which mentioned that Fatimi was on trial, and destroyed every issue. Yet he's the man who will eventually decide whether the United States has gas rationing—or possibly, whether the American people go into World War III. The whole world is walking on the razor edge that divides peace from war—and a man in Iran may make the final decision.

Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO
Escanaba—William Nelson, Gladstone contractor, has been officially notified that his low bid of $6,232.10 for the replacement of the roof on the Upper Peninsula State Fair grandstand has been accepted by the state administrative board.

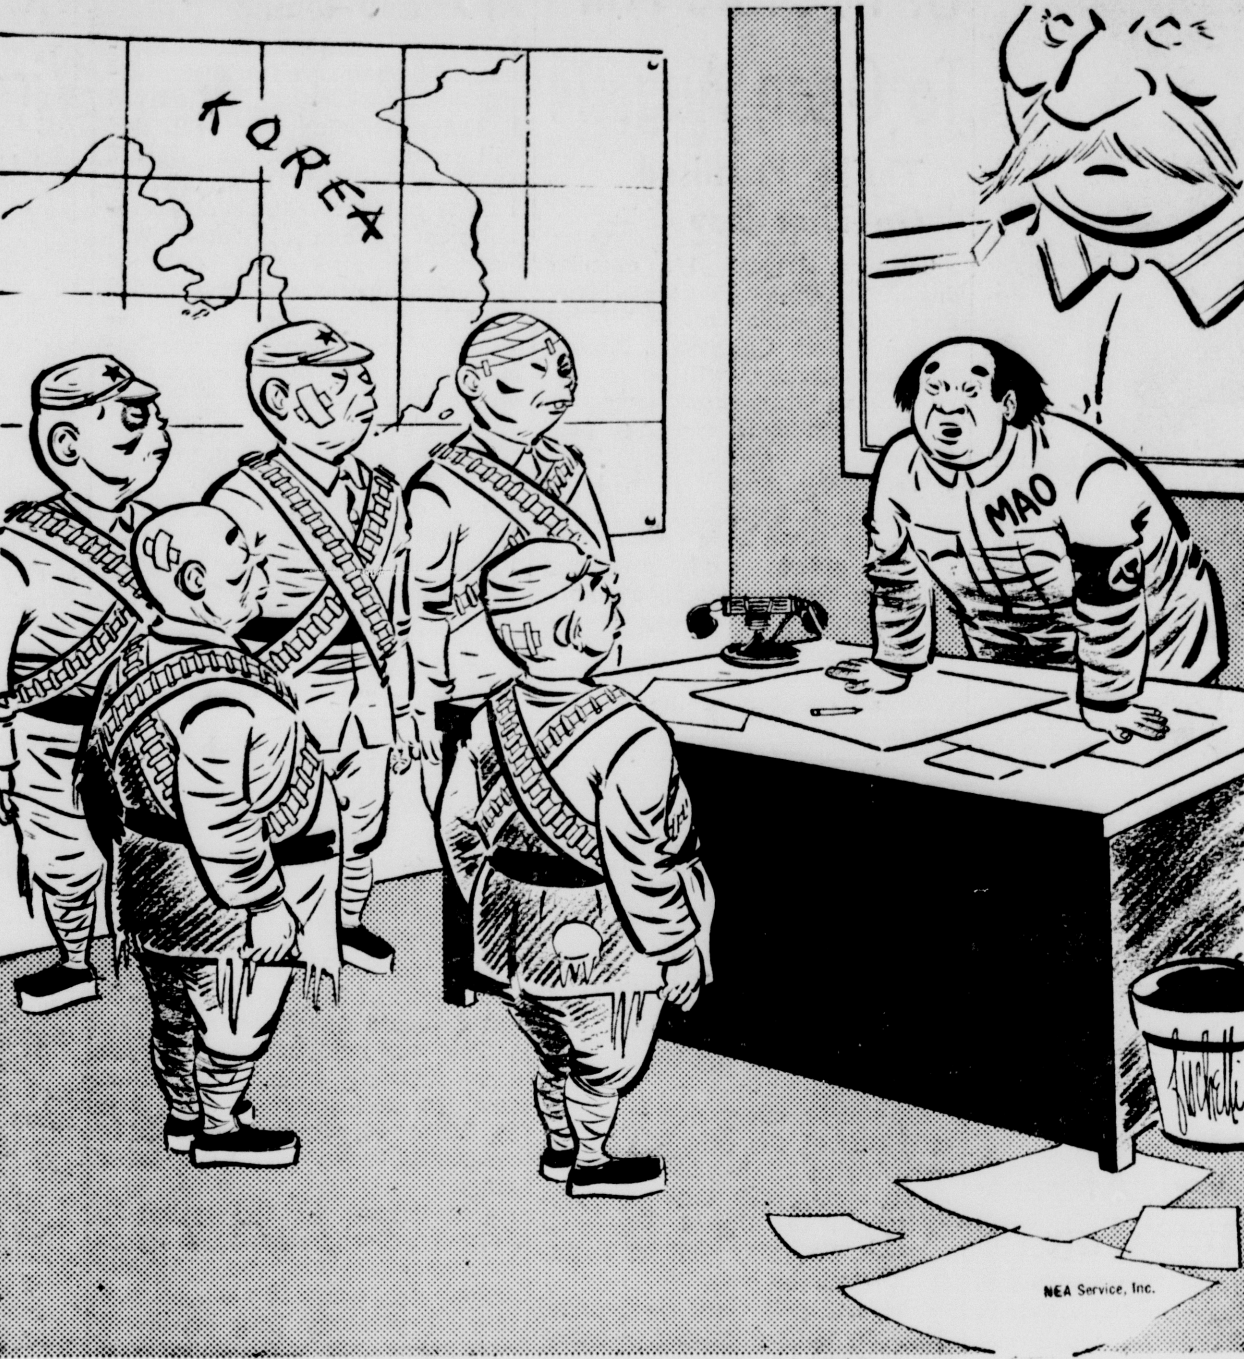

Manistique—Frank M. Gierke, sr., Manistique postmaster since Feb. 18, 1937, has been reappointed by Postmaster General Frank Walker and President Franklin D. Roosevelt, it was announced yesterday.

Gladstone—A. T. Rossow, Days River, returned Wednesday evening from Buffalo, N. Y., where he attended the national convention of the Townsend Pension association as a representative of Delta county Townsend clubs.

20 YEARS AGO
Honolulu—Miss Norma Talmadge, screen actress, left today on the Japanese liner Chichibu Maru for San Francisco on receiving word her mother was seriously ill at Beverly Hills, Calif. In her haste to reach her mother's bedside, Miss Talmadge paid the $200 fine imposed on foreign registered boats for carrying passengers between American ports.

Gladstone—A band of gypsies, started on their way by the Escanaba police department, and told to keep going, got in trouble again before they got out of Delta county, and spent the night in the custody of the sheriff's department after one of the women in the party was alleged to have appropriated $96 from the safe of the Mick's brothers store at Kipling.

Workers In UN Building Await Peace -- And Air Conditioning

By RICHARD KLEINER

NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The UN Building soars 38 floors upwards, with its blue-grass sides sparkling in the morning sun that slants across the East River. It looks like some monstrous, skinny ice cube.

But there's nothing icy about the building inside. The people who work there have other comparisons for it—they say it is as hot as adding the name of a tropical nation that is a non-UN-member.

The same sun that glints in the 38-story-high windows, making pretty pictures for the sight-seer, makes life miserable for the UN employees. There is, as yet, no air-conditioning, and the sun is strong enough through the glass walls to give workers sun tans.

"There are two things we await," says a UN worker, "with a great deal of anticipation. One is the coming of peace, and the other is air-conditioning."

In one room, a man with a thermometer kept checking the temperature as the sun warmed to its work. He quit when he got a 102-degree reading.

"We ought to get a tropical allowance," said a humid lady in the radio section, referring to the extra pay drawn for work in equatorial climates.

"Now there's a little breeze," said a girl in a sun dress. "But sometimes you could just die. The venetian blinds don't reach down to the bottom of the windows, and the sun reflects on the tops of the radiators. It's murder."

But that condition is just temporary. Air conditioning, like manana, is coming. Right now all it does is circulate the hot air, but a cooling plant drawing water from the East River is due to commence operations in three or four weeks.

Most of the UN people like the building, which they call the "Aquarium," but they do say it has its drawbacks, even excluding the temporary problem of excess heat.

"Getting philosophical about it," said one man, "an international organization should not be built on 38 floors. We have some 60 nationalities working here; they must meet and get together to be truly international. The only way we meet each other is by accident in the elevator."

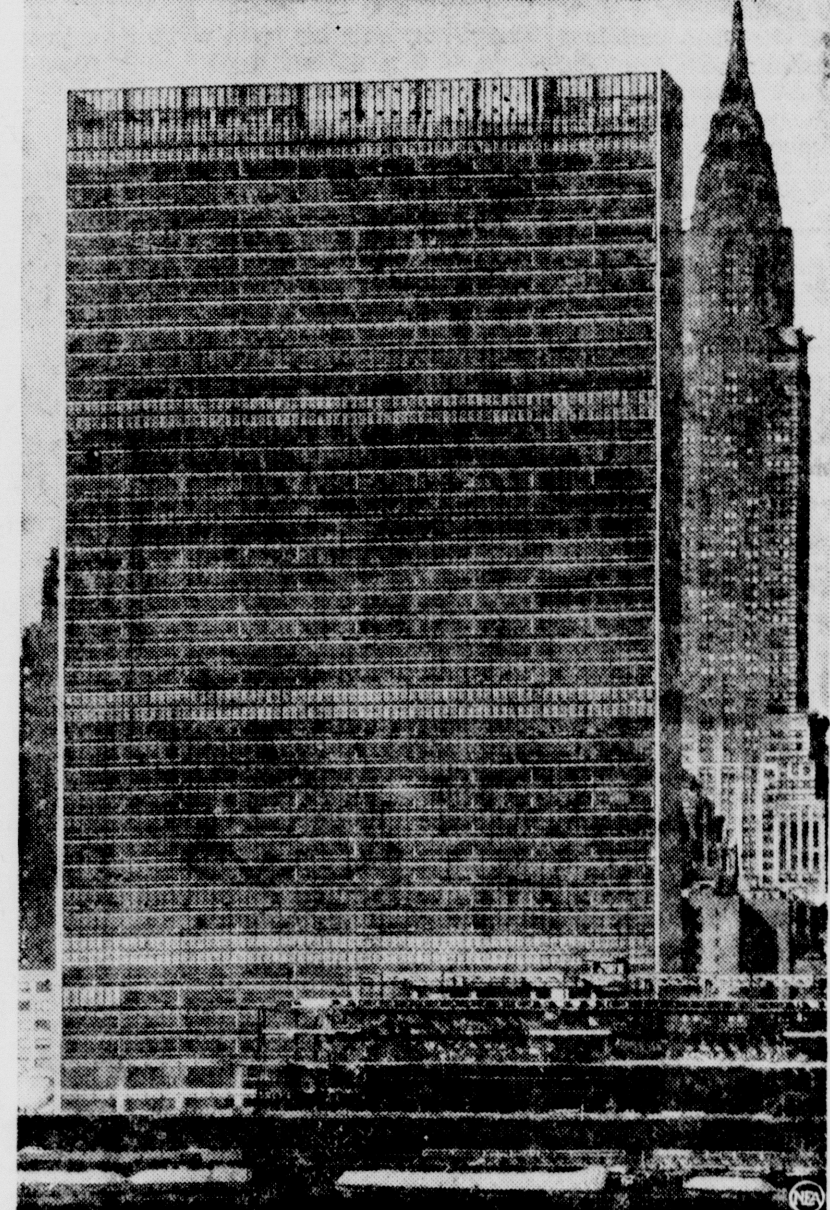

Those employees who were with the UN at Lake Success long for the good old, neighborly days.

"At Lake Success," recalled a section head, "you saw everybody you wanted to see almost every day. But here, when I want to talk to someone, it becomes an official task—you must call up and make an appointment first."

Among the other complaints: The cafeteria, which the people who eat in it call the "sandwich-eria," because sandwiches are about all you can get there. The local joke points out that the building's clinic is in back of the cafeteria—"it is so handy for acute cases of indigestion."

The rule that prohibits hanging pictures from the walls. Many of the UN people decorated their Lake Success offices tastefully and would like the chance to do the same on the banks of the East River.

The inner layout, which places the secretaries in a long, hall-like room beside the offices which they serve. The secretaries have no windows and no air, but they do have constant interruptions, as their room is a well-travelled corridor.

The view from the river side of the building is lovely but they wish something could be done about the soft-drink sign across in Long Island City. One UN writer said, however, that anybody who can't write with that view to inspire them should immediately quit the profession.

The vastness of the structure, which means, said one girl, that it takes seven minutes to get from her office to the street. She timed it.

The breeze when the windows are opened, which they are during the current non-air-conditioning period. One girl saw a complete file sucked out the window and the papers flutter into the river.

But, despite the inconveniences, the majority of the employees wouldn't trade their jobs for anything.

"Every morning, when I come to work," said one, "I feel it all over again. It's a thrill to be a part of this."

Letters From The People

Firecrackers

Dear Editor:

I, as a citizen of Michigan do openly declare what I think of the nuisance created by the selling and bootlegging of firecrackers. Some people deliberately throw firecrackers in your face and through open doors and windows of homes and business places.

Capers of this sort is exactly what caused the ban on their use in this state. Anyone trying to sell these condemned things for what few cents are made off their sale I say is very hard-pressed to make a living.

I also found that some flags are missing from the graves of soldiers in the cemetery at Trenary the day after the Fourth of July. I would say that this is the work of snakes. Human beings would not get that lowdown. This trick is about as lowdown as can be.

R. Stine,
Mathias Township.

So They Say

I have no intention of running for the presidency and I'm not doing anything about it. I don't think anyone from the South would have a chance, and if a Southerner did have a chance, there are many people down there more deserving than I am.—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D. Tenn.).

They (teen-age drug addicts) are finding the times in which they are growing up merely a bridge from one period of mass killing to a possible greater catastrophe.—Pauline Frederick, radio news commentator.

Good Evening ...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

SOMETHING NEW—Out in Des Moines Iowa, a friend of S. E. Decker, meteorologist of the U. S. Weather Bureau station at Escanaba, sent him a clipping from the Des Moines Register concerning unusual weather in Escanaba.

The item was written by Ries Tuttle, outdoor editor of the Register, who was here for the national convention of outdoor writers.

Under Escanaba dateline of July 2, Tuttle reported to his newspaper:

"During a brief but heavy rainstorm, tadpoles showered down upon the streets and the delegates collected them from the paving."

Note: Decker came here from Des Moines and for that reason received the clipping from his home town paper. And if tadpoles fell in Escanaba on July 2, Decker did not observe it—nor, we might add, did anyone so report with exception of Mr. Tuttle of the outdoor writers.

HOME AGAIN—Decker's only comment concerning the item was that a little hail fell in Escanaba July 2. And our comment is that perhaps Mr. Tuttle, searching for a better story, saw legs and tails on the hail stones.

But let's take off on a new slant and report another item in the mail, this time from Escanaba's good friend A. W. (Al) Norblad of Astoria, Oregon.

You may recall that Mr. and Mrs. Norblad revisited Escanaba recently, where they were guests of the Fred Leightons, and that Atty. Norblad (former governor of Oregon) spoke to the Escanaba Rotary and Kiwanis clubs.

Now back in Astoria, Al Norblad writes to tell me the column I wrote concerning him reminded him of the story of the colored funeral.

"The preacher was at the head of Rastus' coffin which was surrounded by the widow and children," Atty. Norblad wrote. "The parson in his best oratorical form expatiated at length upon the virtues of the deceased. Finally the widow could stand it no longer.

"'Stop,' she cried, 'they got the wrong man in de coffin! Parson ain't talkin' about my Rastus!'"

ESCANABA VICTORY—Possibly in our column we extended Mr. Norblad's virtues, but not—we feel—to the extent of making the subject unrecognizable to his friends in Escanaba.

Atty. Norblad has always been a booster of Escanaba and for that our people are duly grateful. Ever since he and Mrs. Norblad left Escanaba in 1909 to go West they have returned periodically to visit old friends.

During World War II at Portland, Ore., Atty. Norblad, former Escanaban and former governor of Oregon, did the honors with an address at the launching of the "Escanaba Victory." That ship has carried the name Escanaba to ports in many lands around the world.

WHEAT FOR INDIA—Continuing his letter, Atty. Norblad reports:

"The day we got home we saw the 'Escanaba Victory' going up the Columbia, and you will find enclosed a clipping from the Oregonian that she is in dock here.

"I understand she is loading wheat for India under the loan agreement this country recently made with India."

Since her launching the "Escanaba Victory" has been little in the news, although she has been carrying cargo the width of the Pacific in peace and wartime.

Atty. John G. "Jack" Erickson of Escanaba, who served with the U. S. Navy during World War II, saw the "Escanaba Victory" in the South Seas.

OF THE NAME—Switching back to Mr. Decker of the Escanaba weather bureau, we would like to report that before leaving Des Moines for Escanaba he was interviewed by the Des Moines register and told the newspaper reporter he was going to Escanaba—the "Land of the Red Buck."

Mr. Decker will learn, after living in Escanaba for a time, that local controversy surrounds the meaning of the city's name.

Most authorities lean toward the meaning first ascribed—Flat Rock. Later the more fanciful "Land of the Red Buck" was adopted by the Chamber of Commerce.

Take My Word For It ... Frank Colby Jr.

TAKE MY WORD FOR IT WORDS TO WATCH

From Mrs. L. S., Houston: If you'll set doctors and nurses in this town straight on, "He's going to be operated in the morning," life will be far sweeter. Doctors are a law unto themselves, but even they cannot "operate" a human being.

Answer: Physicians and nurses have prated "The patient will be operated." But this kind of lingo is nonsense, by jingo. For man is born, and not fabricated.

No cogwheels or springs in his tummy. No changing his oil when it's gunny. No doctor alive, Sir, Shall into ME dive, Sir, With pliers and wrenches, Lor' lummy. The verb "operate" has the primary meaning "to work." It stems in the Latin opus, "work; labor."

In surgery, operate means, "to perform some manual act or series of acts upon the body of a patient, usually with instruments, to remedy deformity, injury, or disease."—American College Dictionary. In short, the surgeon works on the patient, just as the dentist works on the teeth, as the manicurist works on the nails, and as the barber works on the hair.

Therefore, the surgeon operates ON or UPON the patient. In this sense, operate is an intransitive verb.

Thus the connotation of "Mrs. Blank was operated" is that she is a machine that must be manipulated by human hands. The surgeon emphatically does not "operate" her.

* THIS IS THE SAFETY-RIM WHEEL that pro- tects you in case of a blowout. It keeps a deflated tire firmly on the rim so it won't twist and throw your car out of control.

* THIS IS THE DOOR that opens wide—10 to 12 inches wider than in the other two leading low-priced cars. It means easier, more graceful exits and entrances. And door openings are higher too.

* THIS IS THE CHAIR-HEIGHT SEAT, highest in the lowest-priced field. With legs and back fully supported, you sit in an erect natural posture that means more comfort, less fatigue. There's ample headroom too.

* THESE ARE THE CONTROLS and conven- iences that only Plymouth offers in the lowest-priced field: An ignition key that starts the engine and puts the automatic choke in operation... electric windshield wipers that don't slow down when you step on the gas... and Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes that give you better, more certain control because they have a total of six hydraulic cylinders compared to four in the other two leading low-priced cars.

* THIS IS THE ENGINE, and the only engine in the lowest-priced field, that offers the brilliant performance of 97 horsepower with 7.0 to 1 compression ratio.

* THIS IS THE CAR with "Safety-Flow Ride"—one of the greatest engineering advances in automotive history. ## Archers Shoot Bucks And Does

Season Opens Up For Month Oct. 1

ROSCOMMON, Mich. — (AP) — Ring-necked pheasants may be hunted legally next fall in all counties of the Lower Peninsula, the state conservation commission decided at its regular meeting here.

The pheasant season next year will be Oct. 15 through Nov. 5, inclusive. The opening of Alcona county, closed to hunters the last few seasons, made the birds legal targets everywhere below the straits.

Bag limits in the Lower Peninsula will be two daily, four in possession and eight in the season.

Menominee was the only Upper Peninsula area opened to pheasant hunting. The season will be Oct. 1 to Oct. 10 inclusive with a bag limit of one a day, two in possession and three in the season.

The commission lifted its ban on the use of rifles in deer hunting in the southern counties of the Lower Peninsula when it set a 16-day gun season from Nov. 15 to Nov. 30 inclusive.

Archers may hunt a buck deer everywhere in the state from Oct. 1 to Nov. 5 inclusive.

All types of deer were made legal game during the same period in all but 11 counties. Counties semi-closed were Keweenaw, Houghton, Dickinson, Menominee, Chippewa other than Drummond Island, Emmett, Cheboygan, Otsego, Clare and the northern portion of Bay and Huron counties.

Also approved were special seasons in northern Lower Peninsula counties where deer have been causing extensive orchard damage.

Upper Peninsula bag limits on prairie chicken and sharp-tailed grouse were increased to five a day, 10 in possession and 25 in the season extending from Oct. 1 to Oct. 20 inclusive. The Lower Peninsula limits remained three, six and 25 in the counties open to shooters.

The regulations on ruffed grouse hunting remained the same.

Rita Hayworth Awaits Courier From Prince; He Wants To Make Up

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. — (AP) — The American actress awaits the legal courier bearing a reconciliation message from her estranged Moslem prince today.

Thus the international romantic atmosphere was established for the next chapter in the marital mixup of Rita Hayworth and Prince Aly Khan.

His attorney, Charles Torem, bears the undisclosed message, presumably a pleading from Aly to Rita to heal their rift. Torem flew west from New York last night with Miss Hayworth's own lawyer, Bartley Crum. Both have come from Paris conferences with the prince.

The auburn-haired actress awaited them with her two children in a bungalow at the swank Beverly Hills hotel. Eighteen-month-old Yasmin, daughter of Rita and Aly, and six-year-old Rebecca, daughter of Rita and her previous husband, Orson Welles, are the innocent bystanders in this drama of Moslem and movie royalty.

Lake Fishing Report Issued

Great Lakes Yields 26,000,000 Pounds

The Great Lakes largest source of fresh water fish in North America with an annual U. S. production of 81,000,000 pounds, has meant an average of 26,000,000 pounds for Michigan commercial fishermen for the last 20 years.

This was revealed in a Michigan conservation department report to several hundred outdoor writers meeting here this week.

Michigan usually accounts for about one-fourth of the total commercial harvest while Ontario netters normally exceed this percentage slightly. Other states sharing in the annual catch are Ohio, Wisconsin, Minnesota, New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Indiana.

Harvest Declines

The Michigan harvest has declined the last two years with normally large catches of lake trout missing from fishermen's reports for several years. The rapid decline in the take of Great Lakes trout, widely publicized, of course is due to the depredations of the sea lamprey. This eel-like creature attaches itself to fish and sucks out enough blood to weaken and eventually kill many fish. The lake trout is the lamprey's top victim.

Last year's total catch by Michigan commercial operators was about 22,778,000 pounds or 11 percent smaller than the 1949 harvest of 25,534,000 pounds. Production was up for yellow pike, smelt and carp but down for all other major species.

Lake Herring Leads

Over half the tonnage last year was in lake herring, whitefish and chubs. Lake herring led with 6,594,000 pounds.

Catch of lake trout in Lake Superior was up some, 2,365,000 pounds as against 2,181,000 in 1949, but the total Michigan Great Lakes take was down. The 1950 total was 2,390,000 pounds as compared to 2,405,000 pounds in 1949 and a 6,500,000-pound average for many years. Catches in Lake Huron and Lake Michigan have dwindled to practically nothing the last two years.

Of the five Great Lakes, Erie usually produces the most commercial fish, closely followed by Lake Michigan. In recent times, total catch in U. S. waters has averaged $12,000,000 in value. The Michigan portion of the catch has been worth $4,000,000.

Twenty-three different species of fish normally show up in commercial nets in some quantity each year.

Telephone Installer Bill Corbin and the Michigan Bell truck that doubled as an ambulance.

Telephone Installer Saves a Life

Driving toward Bay City in his telephone company truck, Michigan Bell Installer Bill Corbin saw a farm tractor lurch suddenly, overturn and pin its driver to the highway.

Bill ran to the scene. Young Anthony Reder lay on the highway, his leg trapped beneath the tractor's headlight bracket. Bill couldn't budge the heavy machine. A motorist stopped and the two men managed to free Anthony Reder. Bill took one look at Anthony's leg and rushed to his truck for a first aid kit. Swiftly, he applied a tourniquet. Then he helped the injured youth into the telephone truck and hurried him to the hospital.

As the result of four transfusions, an operation—and the alertness and good judgment of Telephone Installer Bill Corbin—Anthony Reder today is alive and walking just as well as ever.

Bill Corbin has been awarded a Vail Medal for his initiative, resourcefulness and good judgment.

Edison Sault Plans Outlined Utility President Talks To Council

Expansion plans of the Edison Sault Electric company for its newly acquired Manistique division were outlined to the city council Monday night by George W. Baldwin, of Sault Ste. Marie, Edison Sault president.

The utility official said that his firm's electrical engineer and superintendent were coming to Manistique this week to check the local distribution system as one of the first steps to provide the best service possible for the Manistique area.

He explained that Edison Sault had an agreement with the Mead Corporation, Manistique division, to provide standby service for Manistique for the next five years. During this period, he said, Edison Sault proposes to construct its own standby facilities here, and in addition his company may erect additional substations to improve service.

He outlined plans for expanding service in Manistique and the surrounding area to meet growing needs. "We propose to furnish all the power required for current needs and to meet future expectations, particularly if new industry comes to this area," he stated.

Baldwin paid tribute to the Manistique paper firm for its long record of outstanding electrical service to the Manistique area. In agreeing to provide standby service for the next five years, he said, the Mead firm is assuming an obligation of community service which may, in case of an outage on the Edison Sault high line, require the local mill to curtail operations to provide electricity for the city.

Other utility officials present were Edward Horry, of Sault Ste. Marie, Edison Sault vice president; Fred Williams, manager of the utility's Manistique division; and Lawrence Gorsche, local utility superintendent. R. G. Hentschel, local Mead manager and former head of the Manistique Light and Power company, introduced the group to the council.

Defer Action On Dog Ordinance

More Information On Vaccination Sought

Approval of a proposed dog ordinance was again deferred by the city council at its regular meeting Monday night until further information on the immunization of dogs against rabies can be obtained.

The fact that there is no local veterinarian poses a problem for dog owners if the vaccination provision is retained in the proposed new regulation, councilmen pointed out. The city manager was instructed to ascertain if a Delta county veterinarian could serve Manistique and also to determine the approximate cost of the service.

Councilman A. W. Heitman, who is lay director of the Alger-Schoolcraft health department, was requested to obtain information on rabies "shots" from the state department of health.

Everett Anderson, who owns hunting dogs, appeared before the city board and protested against the licensing and immunization clauses of the proposed ordinance, contending that they were unfair to owners of hunting dogs who keep their animals securely penned the year around.

Councilmen declared that if the primary purpose of the proposed ordinance is to prevent dogs running at large, the old ordinance could achieve the same results if adequately enforced. William Hood, city attorney, said the old ordinance was clear and simple and suggested that the city revise it instead of adopting an entirely new regulation.

The ordinance will again be discussed at the next council meeting, it was indicated.

Council Donates $150 To Volunteer Firemen Delegates

An appropriation of $150 was voted by the city council Monday night to help send four delegates from the local volunteer fire department to the Upper Peninsula Firemen's convention at Calumet. James Slining, secretary of the local association, said that an effort would be made at the Calumet session to bring the 1952 convention to Manistique.

With 51 volunteer departments now enrolled in the U. P. association, he said, the 1952 convention should bring approximately 1,000 persons here for a four-day stay. The Calumet meeting is scheduled for August 1, 2, 3 and 4.

School Voting Held Monday

Sale Of Palmer School Favored

In the only two contests in the township school elections Monday, Jean Lustila and Vernon Lloyd won in a three-way race in Germfask and Sam Wall defeated A. C. Ackerman for a three-year term in Mueller township.

The vote follows: Germfask — Jean Lustila, 96; Vernon Lloyd, 96; Mary Rutherford, 38. Mueller — Sam Wall, 52; H. C. Ackerman, 31. All other school candidates were elected without opposition.

Both special propositions also carried. In Doyle township, voters approved the sale of the Palmer school by 27 affirmative votes as compared to three no votes. Thompson township electors favored the discontinuance of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades and the transportation of the pupils to schools in Manistique.

School trustees elected without opposition follow:

Doyle, Beulah A. Rice and Tillie Nielsen; Thompson, Calvin Steven and Ellis Erickson; Mueller, Elsie Wagner and Jean M. Potter for one-year terms; Seney, Clara Boonenberg and J. J. Riordan; Manistique, James Hubble and John Manning; Hiawatha, Charles J. Beckman and Charles Burley; Inwood, Henry Orschel and Henry McGahan.

Local Pictures To Be Displayed On State Ferry

Two large pictures of the Manistique vacation area are to be displayed on the new state ferry boat, "Vacationland", when it goes into service, it was disclosed at the city council meeting Monday night.

Pictures under consideration are the Big Spring and the Thompson beach.

As soon as the size of picture space on the new ship is determined, the information will be forwarded to John F. Wood, local representative in the state legislature. The city council instructed the city manager to cooperate with Rep. Wood in providing the pictures.

Rebuilding of the sidewalks was authorized at the June meeting of the board of supervisors, and the building and grounds committee was instructed to proceed with the project.

A request for bids will be made following Friday's meeting.

Floyd Sample, of Thompson township, is chairman of the committee. Other members are Agner Dehlin, Hiawatha; George Stephens, city of Manistique; Francis Morrison, Seney; and William Pour, Inwood.

Appeal Made For Donors In Plasma Procurement Program Here On Monday

With registrations falling far short of expectations, the committee in charge of the blood plasma procurement clinic here next Monday has issued an appeal for volunteer blood donors.

Only 60 persons so far have volunteered, and approximately 250 donors are needed, it is pointed out.

The following appeal was issued today by the committee in charge:

"The community blood plasma program deserves your support. Have you volunteered your pint of blood? So far only 60 people have indicated a willingness to donate a pint of blood—60 is a far cry from the 250 donors that are needed in Schoolcraft county."

Giving Is Simple

"All of you would donate your blood to save a life. Every hour the emergency exists for someone, somewhere. The whole process of donating blood, from the registering through the giving, just takes 30 minutes of your time. Anyone from 18 to 60 years of age may give blood, (those 18 to 21 must have a card signed by parents). Only well persons are accepted as donors and your health is very carefully checked."

"Persons wishing to register as donors may fill out the application cards obtainable at the Sport and Gift Shop, Siddalls Drug Store, Clint Leonard's Barber Shop, and the post office. Registration may also be made by phone call to Mrs. Malcolm Nelson, registrar, and Mrs. Carl Makk, chairman. Blood donors will go to the K. of C. Hall on July 16, 1951, 11 to 2 p. m. and 4 to 7 p. m."

Plasma Stays Here

"With the exception of the first 53 pints of blood which will go for National Defense, every bit of the blood taken from Schoolcraft county is returned here after processing. The amount we will receive depends upon the number of donations. There is no charge for plasma or plasma fractions; however, there will be charge made by your doctor or hospital for professional services and supplies incidental to their use."

"You give life when you give your blood for plasma and fractions. The blood you give is not kept as whole blood because as whole blood it can be stored only 21 days; plasma can be stored two years. Plasma and fractions make the blood go farther. Four pints of whole blood will treat only four people. The same amount separated into plasma and resuspended cells will benefit eight people."

"Blood plasma and fractions are modern miracles. Donate your blood on July 16 at the K. of C. Hall so that others may have these products when they need them."

Specifications for reconstruction of court house sidewalks will be drafted at a meeting of the county buildings and grounds committee Friday evening, it is announced. The session is scheduled for 8.

Rebuilding of the sidewalks was authorized at the June meeting of the board of supervisors, and the building and grounds committee was instructed to proceed with the project.

A request for bids will be made following Friday's meeting.

Floyd Sample, of Thompson township, is chairman of the committee. Other members are Agner Dehlin, Hiawatha; George Stephens, city of Manistique; Francis Morrison, Seney; and William Pour, Inwood.

Spelling Weakness Draws Criticism

VANCOUVER — (AP) — Both pupils and teachers were criticized in a report from the experts who marked some entrance examinations at the University of British Columbia. Spelling was the big weakness, and the examiners noted 100 different spellings of the word "soliloquy."

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

Russ Hiltonen, former Escanaba Bear pitcher who was signed by Giant Scout Ray Lucas to an Oshkosh contract recently, proved his value as a relief chucker Saturday night . . . Called on to protect a 7-6 edge over Appleton, young Rusty did just that . . . He entered the game in the eighth and held the home Appleton team scoreless the final two innings to preserve the win . . . Two Oshkosh pitchers had preceded him on the mound.

A near-riot marked the Wisconsin State league game . . . Plate Umpire Fred Rock had to have a police escort as he left the diamond after the game . . . One fan tossed a cup at the umpire, igniting the hostile crowd . . . The police had to clear a milling throng of about 500 to get Rock safely out of the park . . . The Appleton fans had been on him all night and blamed their team's defeat on his calling.

Rusty also got his first taste of "big league" competition last week in the Oshkosh exhibition against the Minneapolis Millers of the American Association . . . He worked the last three innings against the Millers, allowed two hits, fanned three and was the victim of one unearned run . . . The Millers beat the Giants 14-1.

We understand that baseball is in a critical way in Powers, where Manager Garis Fleetwood's entry in the Tri-County league is near the folding stage . . . Fleetwood told us last week he is having trouble fielding a team on Sundays . . . It would certainly be a bad knock for the sport if Powers was forced to withdraw from the league because of lack of players.

We hate to do it, but it looks as if we'll have to move the Gladstone Redskins back into second place in the Upper Peninsula Baseball league standings . . . Without checking the standings, we jumped the Redskins into first place Monday by virtue of their home win Sunday over Republic . . . Well, they hadn't in first, they're in second.

Tim & Sally's Top Marquette

Tim & Sally's softball team traveled to Marquette last night to post a 6-2 victory over the Marquette girls at Memorial field.

Clare Ann Dally toed the slab for the Escanaba team, allowing five hits and fanning 11 batsmen. Marion Anderson was the losing pitcher, giving up eight hits and fanning five.

Ruby Stoykovich, Tim & Sally catcher, walloped a homer with none on to break a 1-1 tie in the fourth inning.

Tim & Sally's added three runs in the top of the sixth to ice the victory. Dolly and Betty Cox hit successive doubles to set the sixth inning pace. The Eskey girls collected half of their eight hits in the big inning.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

London—Randolph Turpin 158½, London, outpointed Sugar Ray Robinson, 154½, New York, 15 (title).
Los Angeles—Jimmy Carter, 135½, New York, stopped Enrique Bolanos, 126½, Los Angeles, 7.
Kansas City—Rocky Graziano, 162, Brooklyn, knocked out Cecil Hudson, 164, San Jose, Calif., 3.
Brooklyn (Fort Hamilton)—Eddie Camp, 131, New Haven, Conn., outpointed Pat Marcone, 130, Brooklyn, 6.

Sugar Ray Robinson Loses Middleweight Mitt Crown

LONDON — (P)—Sugar Ray Robinson, once considered boxing's invincible fighting machine, was stripped of his world middleweight crown today after absorbing a terrific beating by Randolph Turpin, a comparative newcomer to fist fighting's big time.

Turpin, 23-year-old Negro almost unknown outside of his British homeland, astounded the boxing world by soundly whipping the New York titleholder in 15 rounds last night as a capacity crowd of 13,000 in Earl's court arena cheered in disbelief.

Return Bout
The 31-year-old Robinson's fistful world collapsed around his battered features, but he'll get a chance on his home grounds to get his title back next September. Immediately after the fight, Robinson's manager, George Gainford, said a return bout would be held Sept. 26 in New York.

"He was better than I was," Robinson said without offering any alibi. "I lost," he said simply. Un-awed by the champion's dazzling reputation, young Turpin bored in from the start to out-punch, outbox and outsmart the overwhelming favorite who has been hailed in recent years as the greatest fighter—pound for pound—anywhere in the world.

Unscathed
"I thought I was winning all the way," Turpin declared as he ran into his dressing room. "He never hurt me once." Randy was quite right.

Turpin finished without a scratch, while Robinson just barely escaped in the 14th round and ended up with a deep cut on his left eyebrow and another gash high on his left cheekbone. The eyebrow cut apparently came from a crash of heads in the ninth round.

The Associated Press scorecard gave Robinson, who had lost only one other fight in 133 bouts covering 11 years, just four rounds. Turpin got nine, with two even.

Men who watched Sugar Ray storm through Europe recently, toppling nine foes in two months, tried to tell him he looked the shadow of his usual self.

Longest In Career
Turpin forced the action for the first eight rounds. He slowed down during the next three—partially explained by the fact he never before had fought more than eight—and then found a tremendous finishing surge that left Robinson completely whipped.

Robinson, who got $84,000—largest purse ever paid a fighter here—was a 1 to 4 favorite. Odds against Turpin winning on points were as high as 20 to 1.

Randy has been fighting professionally since 1946, when he came out of the Royal navy. This was the 44th in Turpin's pro career. He has lost only twice, and has avenged both of them, and has had one draw. He has scored 29 knockouts.

U. P. Girl Favored In State Golf Meet
DETROIT—(P)—Vonnice Colby of Sault Ste. Marie took over the favorite's role today in the quarterfinals of the women's amateur state golf tournament.

The 19-year-old sensation from the Upper Peninsula was paired against defending champion Pat Devany of Grosse Ile.

Miss Devany had been the favorite until the Soo youngster shot a brilliant 74, only two over men's par and four under women's par, at Franklin Hills yesterday.

Vonnice's torrid firing stunned Mrs. J. P. Staphinskias, Detroit, 9 and 7, in the first round of match play.

Pat advanced to the quarterfinals by easily downing Mrs. A. J. Redmond, Detroit, 6 and 5.

State Roller Skaters Star In Title Meet
CLEVELAND—(P)—Michigan roller skaters starred yesterday in the American roller skating championships here.

Figure skating by intermediate fours was won by a Detroit group composed of William Pate, Gayle Locke, Robert Tabacchi and Nancy Cromis.

Placing second were four Mt. Clemens, Mich.—Bernard Lick, Jo Ann Stacy, Raymond Miller and Gertrude Miller.

John Papadopoulos of Detroit was second in the junior boys one-sixth mile race. Dorothy Van Damme of Detroit was second in the intermediate girls 440-race.

U. S. Track Team Arrives In Japan
TOKYO — (P)—Twelve of America's top track and field athletes arrived by air today for 18 exhibition meets.

With the team were Manager John J. Downing, director of recreation for the New York City park department; Karl A. Schlademann, track coach at the University of Michigan, and Ward H. Haylett, track mentor at Kansas State college.

Among the first off the plane was big Mal Whitfield, world record holder for 800 meters.

NAUBINWAY WINS
Gulliver dropped a 4-2 decision to Naubinway Sunday before a large crowd at the Gulliver baseball field.

Maglie Wins
Ewell Blackwell, the "Whip" from Cincinnati, held the losers at bay in the ninth. The victory was credited to Maglie, who worked the third, fourth and fifth innings.

Five hurlers went to the hill for the Americans. Except for Ned Garver of St. Louis, all were pasted freely.

Eddie Lopat, pride of the Yankees, was charged with the loss. The veteran southpaw replaced Garver in the fourth and was shellacked for three tallies in the one inning he worked. He got a fine welcome from Musial who whammed his first pitch into the right field seats. Elliott followed a single by Hodges with another circuit clout into the left field stands.

Hodges got his round tripper off Detroit's Fred Hutchinson who hurled the fifth, sixth and seventh innings. Kiner's long range blow was hit off Mel Parnell, Red Sox left-hander.

Sawyer Happy
Manager Eddie Sawyer, whose Phillies dropped four straight to the Yankees in the 1950 world series, was as happy as a lark over the fine showing of his Nationals. "Boy, what a clout I had out there today," he chuckled as he sat in a corner of the clubhouse accepting handshakes from well-wishers.

"I'd like to run a team like that all the time," he said. "I'd work for nothing if I had a team like that. All I'd want is a bed in the clubhouse."

It marked the first time the Nationals had won two successive all-star games. It also was the first time the Nationals had ever won in an odd year.

Helps Pension Fund
Casey Stengel, pilot of the Americans, took the loss in good grace.

"We were just plain lousy out there today," he said. "Our hitting was bad and our pitching was worse. They simply outplayed us in every department."

Among the American leaguers who didn't play was Joe DiMaggio, who had been picked for the 13th time. The Yankee star pulled a muscle in Boston Sunday.

The gate receipts of $124,294.07 after taxes went to the player pension fund. So did the $110,000 television and radio fee.

Late Rally Wins For Al's Tavern

Two Runs In Last Of Seventh Win

Coming from behind with a brace of runs in the last of the seventh, Al's Tavern nosed out St. Ann's by a 10-9 score in the opener at Memorial Field last night.

With one out, Stew Jensen smacked a single scoring the tying run from third, with the potential winning run racing to third on the hit. Bob Molloy scored on the next play as Red Holmes fled deep to center field.

Vern Olson bagged a two-run homer in the second inning for the winners. Batteries were: McGovern and Monson for Al's, St. Jacques and LaFave for St. Ann's.

In the windup, Power & Light humbled Westby's Service 12-1 with Bill Courmeene twirling a three hitter. Ray O'Seen picked up three for four at the plate and Bob Corrievue had three for five for the winners.

Power & Light pounded out 16 hits off Louis Kositzky and a reliever in the one-sided tilt.

Highland Golf Club Host To U. P. Women

The Highland Golf club had reservations for 170 women golfers for the Upper Peninsula Invitational meet being held today.

Breakfast, dinner and buffet lunch has been arranged for the women golfers who represent most of the clubs in the Peninsula. Bridge will be enjoyed by many.

Club officials expect 130 golfers to take part in the links get-together.

All-Star Notes

DETROIT — (P)—The 18th annual all-star game produced almost one quarter million dollars for the players' pension fund.

Gate receipts after taxes were paid but before deduction of about $15,000 operating expenses were $124,294.07. Radio and television paid in an additional $110,000.

Before the game an attendant asked Casey Stengel, the American league manager:

"The National league bench would like you to give them about a half-dozen baseballs, autographed by all of your players. Can you do it?"

Said the wise-cracking Stengel: "Tell you what, young man. You go back and tell those boys over on that bench if they want some American league baseballs all they have to do is wait until after the game and then go up in the bleachers and collect the home run balls we hit."

It seemed funny at the time but not so funny after the National leaguers hit four homers.

Richie Ashburn, the little blonde Phillie outfielder, made a sixth inning catch that bordered on the unbelievable. Vic Wertz of the Tigers, who had already hit one homer, sent a towering smash to the 400-foot mark in right field that looked like another. Ashburn made a running high jump and grabbed the ball just at the top of the 10-foot screen. If he had missed it would certainly have been a triple and possibly a home run.

Oddly enough the two home runs hit by the American leaguers—Wertz's and George Kell's—were made off the winning National league pitcher, Sal Maglie of the Giants. Both, he said, were "bad balls." Maglie reported Wertz hit a low inside curve and Kell a high inside curve.

Ed Lopat, the Yankee left-hander, couldn't understand how Stan Musial made his home run. "I threw a good curve, as good as any I'll ever throw," said Lopat. "It was breaking low over the plate and away from Musial. Then the next thing you know it's in the seats in the bleachers."

Chandler pulled out a handkerchief, dabbed at his eyes. "I'd prefer a place in baseball to any other field," he said earnestly.

Public Fishing Areas Acquired

Michigan Planning To Purchase More

Nearly 29,000 acres of game, fishing access frontage, forest and other types of recreation land have been placed in public ownership in Michigan so far this year. More will follow.

Purchase funds, according to a Michigan conservation department report to North American outdoor writers in session here this week, were from state fishing and hunting license fees and partly from federal Pittman-Robertson revenue.

The expansion program has been in progress for a number of years, in accordance with department policy. Together with tax-reverted land acquired in the 1930's, Michigan has about 4,250,000 acres in public ownership, out of a total of 38,650,000 acres. Practically all the state-owned land is open to hunters and fishermen in season, as well as other forms of recreation. An important portion of the acreage fronts on lakes and streams, providing public fishing access.

The state-owned land primarily consists of 22 forests, 31 game areas and 60 park and recreation areas. Hunting also is permitted on 2,400,000 acres in three national forests.
